EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Art Hasan on 6/23/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

Replace Abstract with:

-- An adaptive learning system and method ("ALS") for optimized, automated learning is disclosed. The optimal sequencing method is adaptive in the sense that it continuously monitors a student's speed and accuracy of response in answering a series of questions, performing a series of classification tasks, or performing a series of procedures, and modifies the sequencing of the items presented as a function of these variables. One goal of the technique is to teach the subject matter in the shortest possible time. The optimal sequencing method may be used independently or in conjunction with disclosed perceptual learning and hinting methods. --

This amendment was made to place the Abstract within the maximum word requirement of 150 words.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not teach or fairly suggest the following in combination with the other claim limitations: software for implementing a sequencing algorithm, wherein the algorithm sequences learning items to be presented by associating with a learning item a priority score as a function of the response data collected from prior learning trials and makes it impossible for one or more learning items to be presented in at least one learning trial based upon the priority score associated with the learning item (Claim 1 and similar language in independent Claims 21 and 31). See pp.3-4 of Applicant's Remarks filed on 6/14/05.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
